

San Diego County Library

Tango Extravaganza @ Your Library

Tuesday, March 18

Lemon Grove Branch Library

8073 Broadway, Lemon Grove 91945

Phone: 619.463.9819

3:30p.m. - Tango demonstration with Isabelle Kay & Florentino Guizar, UCSD instructors.

The magic and passion of Argentine Tango.

4 p.m. - In Concert – Tango Revolution with José Rodriguez, Classical Guitar and Thomas Yee, Violin. Argentine Tangos: La Cumparista, Campo Afuera, Libertando, Tango-Milonga.

5 p.m. - Tango lesson with Isabelle & Florentino. Practice the fundamentals and techniques. No experience required.

6 p.m. - Tango Finale by Isabelle & Florentino, with dancers of Tango Concepts of San Diego.

Refreshments served: Argentine Yerba Mate Tea and Empanadas.

José Rodriguez holds a Master's of Music degree from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, and serves on the faculty of two schools in Mexico.

Thomas Yee has his Master's of Music degree from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. He performs with four symphony orchestras in Northern California, as well as a chamber orchestra and opera company.

Both musicians have won a variety of awards and competitions. Their latest CD, "Historia," includes Tangos, Spanish dances, jazz and more.

Isabelle Kay received tango training in the U.S. and Argentina, and is an instructor at El Mundo del Tango and at UCSD. She holds Bronze and Silver Amateur certificates, and a Bronze professional certificate from the Argentine Tango Masters Association (ATMA).

Florentino Guizar has directed various school dance troupes and ballet folklórico groups in the U.S. and Mexico, and is a Tango instructor at UCSD.

